

Sources 2 Projects & Process Training Mentors for Documentary Filmmakers

Workshop in Oulu/Finland 2012!

We are proud to come back to Oulu/Finland thanks to our long-term partnership with POEM – The Northern Film and Media Foundation which has been established eleven years ago.

Our upcoming workshop Sources 2 Projects & Process – Training Mentors for Documentary Filmmakers will be realised with the support of POEM – The Northern Film and Media Foundation, the Finnish Film Foundation and AVEK.

The session will take place in the City of Oulu, 26th – 30th September 2012, following the Nordisk Panorama Five Cities Film Festival 2012. The workshop venue will be Hotel Lasaretti while everyone will be accommodated at Hotel Holiday Inn Oulu.

Internationally acclaimed Sources 2 advisers Ulla Simonen (Finland), Michael Seeber (Austria) and Rolf Orthel (Netherlands) will guide the sessions aimed at colleagues who wish to expand and refine their methods as mentors, experience the Sources 2 projects and process philosophy and explore the rules and non-rules. Eleven highly qualified professionals from Belgium, Finland, Norway, the United Kingdom and the US have been selected for participation.

The workshop programme will include both sessions with small groups as well as general meetings. Rolf Orthel will present a keynote in two parts about The Recipe. Michael Seeber will illuminate a different angle in his speech San-Sheng Meets Yang-Shan Or The Art Of Mentoring.

The programme will be completed by a lecture open to the local film professionals:

To Find The Mind

likka Vehkalahti (Finland), commissioning editor at the Finnish Broadcasting Company YLE will hold a lecture focusing an approach to mentoring. likka's lecture will be followed by a MEDIA presentation and reception hosted by MEDIA Desk Finland.

Thursday, 27th September 2012, 18:00 – 19:30 at Hotel Lasaretti.

During the following three months participants stay in touch among each other and with the advisers, exchanging experience and receiving mutual advice. SOURCES 2 Projects & Process will conclude with a round-off: Each participant receives individual advice and a short evaluation by one of the advisers.
